4.8. The Exhibitor assumes full responsibility for all the equipment provided to him for use within the limits of its value, in case of its damage, or loss through the Exhibitor's fault.

4.9. The Exhibitor pays a fine for one square meter of the hired exhibition space for each overdue day in favor of the Exhibition Organizer in case of untimely release of the exhibition pavilion / open area after the end of the exhibition. At the same time, the Exhibition Organizer is not responsible for the integrity and safety of the Exhibitor's property.

4.10. In case the Exhibitor violates the item 3.1.18 of the Agreement, the Exhibitor unconditionally agrees and undertakes to pay a penalty (penalty) in the amount of twenty times the value of the cost of Services in favor of the Exhibition Organizer.

4.11. The organizer of the exhibition is not responsible for the commercial success of the Exhibitor at the Exhibition.
5. Circumstances of Force Majeure:

5.1. The parties are exempted from liability for non-fulfilment and / or improper performance of their obligations under the Contract if proper performance was not possible due to force majeure circumstances, namely: natural disasters (earthquakes, floods, etc.), military actions, civil unrest, acts of state bodies, directly impeding the fulfillment of their obligations by the Parties.

5.2. The party affected by the above circumstances must notify the other Party in writing of the occurrence of the force majeure circumstances, but not later than 3 (three) business days from the date of their occurrence, and also provide official documents (document from the relevant authorized state bodies and / or other Competent authorities), evidencing such circumstances.

5.3. In the event of force majeure circumstances, the deadline for Parties to fulfill their obligations under the Treaty shall be proportionally extended for the period of such circumstances.

5.4. In the event of force majeure circumstances exceeding 30 (thirty) calendar days from the moment of their occurrence, either Party may terminate the Agreement. At the same time, the Parties undertake to make all settlements under the Contract within 10 (ten) calendar days before the date of termination of the Agreement.

6. The order of dispute settlement:

6.1. The parties are obliged to make every effort to resolve various disputes and disagreements that may arise during the performance of the Treaty or in connection with it, through negotiations.

6.2. In the event that disputes and disagreements cannot be settled through negotiations, they are resolved in accordance with the current legislation of the Kyrgyz Republic.

6.3. Applicable law under the Contract (material and procedural) is legislation of the Kyrgyz Republic.

7. Final Provisions:

7.1. The Contract comes into force from the moment of its signing and is valid until the Parties fulfill their obligations under the Agreement.

7.2. The Contract specifies and contains in full all the essential and other conditions that the Party must adhere to in the performance of the Treaty. After the signing of the Treaty, any agreements, obligations, offers and applications of the Parties, both oral and written, preceding the date of the conclusion of the Treaty and related to its subject matter shall be canceled, if any, between the Parties. In connection with the loss of legal force of such arrangements, agreements, obligations, offers and applications, the Parties are not entitled to refer to them in the future, including in the event of any claim in connection with the performance of the Treaty.

7.3. All changes, additions and Appendices to the Agreement are deemed valid if they are executed in writing and signed by authorized representatives of both Parties are an integral part of the Treaty.

7.4. The Agreement is made in Russian in 2 (two) copies having equal legal force, one of which belongs to the Exhibition Organizer, the other to the Exhibitor.

7.5. Facsimile copies of the Agreement, Annexes and additional agreements of the Parties shall have full legal force with subsequent exchange of originals.
